

PICASSO

Masterpieces from the Musée National Picasso, Paris

This landmark exhibition of the work of Pablo Picasso is drawn from the collection of the Musée National Picasso in Paris, the largest and most significant repository of the artist's works in the world.

Representing seven decades of his work, the exhibition is part of a world tour and exclusive to Sydney. The exhibition will present iconic works from almost every phase of Picasso's extraordinary career, with more than 150 paintings, sculptures, drawings and prints on display.

The coach will depart the NSW Art Gallery at 1.00 pm and travel to Harbourside, Darling Harbour where it is very pleasant to sit and eat lunch by the waters of Sydney Harbour and explore the shops and popular tourist complex or you may choose to make a visit to the Maritime Museum (this cost NOT included).
